

TANK-AUTOMOTIVE & ARMAMENTS COMMAND JOB VACANCIES

2021 BLACK ENGINEER OF THE YEAR AWARDS EVENT

(Available jobs as of February 9, 2021)

Register for the event free at: <https://s4.goeshow.com/ccgroup/beyastem/2021/register.cfm> and upload your resume prior to the event at: <https://tinyurl.com/y2f4rnq3>

LOCATION: TACOM HEADQUARTERS, DETROIT ARSENAL, MICHIGAN

G6 (Corporate Information)

Position Title: Information Technology Specialist

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-9 Target 12

Salary Range: $58673.00 to $110,617.00

About the Organization: This position will work in the TACOM G6 Corporate Information Office's Support Division whose mission and object is to implement and maintain a sustainable application hosting environment, and provide enterprise business application support services.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

MSO (Materiel Systems Organization)

Position Title: Safety Engineer

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-12 (will consider GS-13 if the candidate has the required certification and experience)

Salary Range: $85,087 to $110,617

About the Organization/Position: The Safety Engineering Office supports Army readiness by managing safety and health risk through the application of system safety engineering principles, criteria, and techniques. The Safety Engineer provides professional life cycle safety engineering expertise and consultant services to the TACOM Commanding General, Program Executive Officers/Program Managers, and other TACOM Life Cycle Management Command (LCMC) elements. The Safety Engineer is responsible for managing the safety program for a system or system of systems. The position includes managing emerging technologies, such as the integration of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the use of additive manufacturing processes.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

G8 (Resource Management)Position Title: Resource Analyst*Pay Plan and Grade: GS-7/9/11Salary Range: $47,967-$92,290

About the Organization/Position: TACOM G8 (Resource Management) Interns will receive extensive on-the-job training as well as attend training courses focused on leadership, fiscal law, financial management, and budget execution of Department of Army funds. Together the training and classes will provide the Interns will a well-rounded foundation for a career in TACOM's financial management career field.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)Position Title: General Supply Specialist (x5)*Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11Salary Range: $70,989 – 92,290

About the Organization/Position: Serves as a supply specialist for Total Package Fielding (TPF) Programs for Materiel Fielding & Training (MF&T) and TACOM LCMC. Provides de-processing and transfer of various new or displaced equipment to members of the United States Armed Forces. Operates in Army Standard Army Management Information Systems (STAMIS) and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems to perform and manage supply and fielding transactions in accordance with AR 700-142 and DA PAM 700-142. Advises on basic National and Below National Level Army supply processes. Performs a broad range of supply transactions related to stock movement, requisitioning, status, and availability.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)Position Title: Training Instructor (x5)*Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11Salary Range: $70,989 – 92,290

About the Organization/Position: Serves as an instructor for New Equipment Training (NET) Programs for Materiel Fielding and Training (MF&T) and the TACOM LCMC. Provides the initial transfer of knowledge on various new or displaced equipment to members of the United States Armed Forces. Delivers operator and maintainer training on a system or series of systems. Trains in classroom or motor pool environments using digital training products and hands-on training as needed. Proficient as a system subject matter expert to train and troubleshoot systems as needed.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

Position Title: Supply Management Specialist (x3)

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-7/target 11

Salary Range: $47,967 – 92,290

About the Organization/Position: Serves as a Supply Management Specialist for the Organizational Clothing and Individual Equipment Central Management Office (OCIE CMO), US Army Tank-Automotive & Armaments Command (TACOM). Administers the supply program to centrally manage the sustainment of OCIE worldwide. Coordinates with stakeholders in other Army Commands and the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) to determine OCIE requirements; to ensure the timely and efficient acquisition of OCIE, components, and repair parts; to properly account for assets in automated property accounting systems; and to optimize inventory levels at the installation level. Provides technical advice, guidance, and assistance on supply operations to agency personnel and other stakeholders.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

Position Title: Supply Systems Analyst (x2)

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-12

Salary Range: $85,087 – 110,617

About the Organization/Position: Serves as an expert system analyst and advisor on the implementation and effectiveness of integrated automated data processing systems that aid in accomplishing the materiel management and supply support functions of logistics data management, requirements computation, life-cycle management (Level III), financial inventory management (to include appropriation request and budget estimates), procurement direction, distribution/redistribution, transportation management, depot maintenance/disposal direction, initial material and/or integrated logistics support (Level III), and support of contingency and mobilization plans.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

Position Title: General Engineer (x2)

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-12

Salary Range: $85,087 – 110,617

About the Organization/Position: Serves as a General Engineer in the Product Support Integration Directorate (PSID) within the Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC) of the Tank-Automotive and Armament Command, (TACOM), a Major Subordinate Command (MSC) of the Army Material Command (AMC). The ILSC is a National Inventory Control Point (NICP) and National Maintenance Point (NMP) responsible for worldwide integrated materiel inventory management and maintenance of Soldier systems.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

Position Title: General Engineer (x3)

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-7/Target 12

Salary Range: $47,967- 110,617

About the Organization/Position: Serves as Project Engineer and technical expert responsible for conducting the maintenance engineering program for several projects running concurrently, including items, components, and/or materials of fielded and/or developmental weapon systems. Performs special studies to enhance state-of-the-art and current programs relative to maintenance concepts, methodologies, and parameters. Conducts engineering evaluation and resolution of reported problems.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

Position Title: Logistics Management Specialist

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-12

Salary Range: $85,087 – 110,617

About the Organization/Position: Serves as Logistics Management Specialist with responsibility for planning, developing, coordinating, and maintaining complex logistics support policies, procedures, and directives. Provides guidance and support to OIB (Organic Industrial Base) managers and installations in one or more of the following disciplines such as government/industry partnering, CORE mission identification, Materiel Enterprise Capabilities Database (MEC-D), Depot/Arsenal Operations Support (DAOS) and the concepts, programs, and processes involved in planning, developing, acquiring, and providing logistics support. Develops and coordinates policies, procedures, and/or directives which reflect the specialized OIB (Organic Industrial Base) functions required in order to provide overall logistics support.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

LOCATION: ANNISTON ARMY DEPOT, AL

Position Title: Maintenance Parts Specialist (MRP Planner)

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-5/7/9

Salary Range: $31,604-$69,648

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Directorate of Production Management, which performs program management, production planning, budget development, material management and systems management for maintenance mission direct and indirect organizations.

Incumbent works under close supervision in a developmental capacity as a GS-1101-05/07/09 performing assignments designed to prepare the incumbent to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the duties at the target level grade of GS-1101-09.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Production Controller

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-5/7/9

Salary Range: $31,604-$69,648

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Directorate of Production Management, which performs program management, production planning, budget development, material management and systems management for maintenance mission direct and indirect organizations.

Incumbent works under close supervision in a developmental capacity as a GS-1152-05/07/09 performing assignments designed to prepare the incumbent to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the duties at the target level grade of GS-1152-09.

This position functions as a Production

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Maintenance Management Specialist

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-5/7/9

Salary Range: $31,604-$69,648

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Directorate of Production Management, which performs program management, production planning, budget development, material management and systems management for maintenance mission direct and indirect organizations.

Incumbent works under close supervision in a developmental capacity as a GS-1101-05/07/09 performing assignments designed to prepare the incumbent to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the duties at the target level grade of GS-1101-09.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Mechanical Engineer

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-5/7/9/11/12

Salary Range: $35,359-$101,008

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Technology Integration Division, Directorate of Production Engineering, and serves as design engineer of equipment, fixtures and tooling required to support heavy tracked vehicles, light tracked vehicles and associated subassemblies. Incumbent performs complex engineering duties associated with the conception, design, redesign or modification of equipment, fixtures and/or tooling to support depot mission programs.

Position Title: Chemical Engineer

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-5/7/9/11/12

Salary Range: $35,359-$101,008

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Technology Integration Division, Directorate of Production Engineering, and serves as design engineer of equipment, fixtures and tooling required to support heavy tracked vehicles, light tracked vehicles and associated subassemblies. Incumbent is designated as Program Manager on one or more chemical processes used in the repair/overhaul of tracked combat vehicles and components such as the application and removal of Chemical Agent Resistant Coatings (CARC) on Army tracked combat vehicles.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Logistics Management Specialist

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-7/9/11

Salary Range: $43,800-$84,273

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Business Support and Operations Division, Directorate of Strategic Planning, whose mission is to develop and manage programs to plan and execute depot operations based on TACOM and Army Material Command (AMC) Strategic Plans related to depot sustainment of weapon systems. Also, develop strategic relationships with weapon systems developers for future capability development. GS-11 responsibilities include performing logistics readiness work in areas such as customer support, acquisition milestone management, and depot capability analysis. Compiles and analyzes a variety of data based on current and projected depot support logistics activities. Determines trends and deficiencies in the logistics chain which affect optimum readiness.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Management and Program Analyst

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11

Salary Range: $64,822-$84,273

About the Organization/Position:

Position is in the Business Support and Operations Division, Directorate of Strategic Planning, whose mission is to develop and manage programs to plan and execute depot operations based on TACOM and Army Material Command (AMC) Strategic Plans related to depot sustainment of weapon systems. Also, develop strategic relationships with weapon systems developers for future capability development. Responsibilities include applying analytical and evaluative methods and techniques to resource management issues or studies concerning the efficiency and effectiveness of operations in a depot maintenance complex having operations such as repair, rebuild, or modification of combat vehicles, artillery, fire control equipment, small arms, electronic test equipment and a variety of support systems which involves a large number of interrelated organizational entities, changing work programs, shifting workloads, and a variety of work processes and interrelated functions.

LOCATION: WATERVLIET ARSENAL, NEW YORK

Position Title: Accountant

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11

Salary Range: $44,410 - $85,448

About the Organization/Position:

Serves as an Accountant providing advice and guidance covering a wide variety of financial policies and requirements within Army Working Capital Funds (AWCF). Performs professional accounting and budgeting activities in the analysis and interpretation of financial statements and reports. In consonance with the general direction of the Team Leader/Division Chief, serves as liaison with various Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) offices. Reviews, analyzes and interprets various financial documents and reports recommending solutions to difficult and complex problems. Serves as liaison for all accounting, budgeting, and entitlement matters.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Engineering Technician

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11

Salary Range: $65,725 - $85,448

About the Organization/Position:

Serves as a subject matter expert for the application of Computer Aided Design (CAD) methods and processes involving the production of complex components, assemblies and other defense items. Using CAD software such as, but not limited to, Inventor, Smart Cam, Master Cam or Esprit, creates solid models per the manufacturing process. Determines programming methods and sequence of operations needed to produce the most efficient method of manufacture by creating tool/cutter path with a CAM system using their comprehensive knowledge of the installation's production mission, equipment, material required, and production methods and procedures for standard, complex and prototype work.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: General Engineer

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-12

Salary Range: $78,778 - $102,415

About the Organization/Position:

Position is responsible for applying professional engineering knowledge, theories and techniques in the fields of mechanical, electrical, and civil engineering to provide energy management and other facilities services for Watervliet Arsenal (WVA).

Serves as the WVA Energy Program Manager responsible for developing, implementing and overseeing a comprehensive energy program and all the tasks and requirements of the position. Conceptualizes, develops and implements energy saving projects to reduce WVA energy cost, and to support stewardship of resources, readiness, and sustainability. Advises the Chief of Public Works, Directors and the Command Group concerning all energy conservation matters.

Position Title: Industrial Engineer

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-11

Salary Range: $65,725 - $85,448

About the Organization/Position:

The incumbent performs duties focusing on business processes and sustainment related to the implementation of Enterprise systems and other business solutions at Watervliet Arsenal (WVA). Subject position exercises initiative, originality, and judgment in applying and adapting a broad knowledge of industrial engineering theories, practices, and precedents to best effect problem solutions associated with the implementation.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.

Position Title: Industrial Engineering Technician

Pay Plan and Grade: GS-9/10/11

Salary Range: $54,323 - $70,618

About the Organization/Position:

Independently plans, conducts, and directs a variety of programs and studies, designed to develop new techniques and improvements to all facets of arsenal functions including, but not limited to, weapons manufacturing, administrative activities and other support elements. Many of these programs are designed to facilitate manufacturing, reduce production time values, minimize production difficulties and/or improve safety.

Note: Complete job description is located on the Yello page.